..... PETITIONER

AND

1 The Government of A.P., Rep by its Secretary of the Home, Secretariat, Hyderabad.
2 The Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad City, Basheerabagh, Hyderabad.
3 The Deputy Commissioner of Police, North Zone, Hyderabad.
4 The Station House Officer, Mahankali P.S. Hyderabad.

..RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue appropriate writ order or direction, more particularly Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondents in preventing the petitioner from running the Bar & Restaurant and providing entertainment with singers both male and female with Orchestra as arbitrary, illegal and further direct the respondents to evaluate a procedure by which some responsible citizens accompany the Police when they conduct raids so as to prevent abuse of the authority by the respondent and to enable the petitioner to carry on this business in accordance with law.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.SUDARSHAN REDDY DUDDUGUNTA

Counsel for the Respondents : GP FOR HOME

The Court made the following :

COMMON ORDER: (Per BRSR,J)

It is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioners that during the pendency of this batch of writ petitions, the Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad, having considered the applications of the petitioners for grant of amusement licences to the petitioners' Bar and Restaurants for conducting 'singing and music programmes with male and female singers for the year 2005 i.e., from 01.01.2005 to 31.12.2005', rejected the same. The petitioners intend to challenge the said orders passed by the Commissioner of Police. It is also stated that some of the petitioners have already filed writ petitions challenging the said orders.

In such view of the matter, no cause of action, as such, survives in these writ petitions requiring any further adjudication. It is needless to observe that the writ petitions filed by the petitioners herein challenging the orders passed by the Commissioner of Police rejecting their applications for grant of amusement licences, may have to be considered on its own merits uninfluenced by the dismissal of these writ petitions.

The writ petitions are accordingly dismissed without any order as to costs.
